Quo Warranto Facts Explained

Attorney General Office Wants To See True Color of Plaintiff's Money

Strong Doubt If Action Will Ever Go To Court

By RALPH R. RULE

Regarding the present status of the Quo Warranto proceedings filed against my seat on the City Council, the following are accurate facts that have been checked by me with members of the Attorney General's office:

1. The Attorney General's office has given leave to the plaintiff to file a civil suit in Superior Court with certain conditions, among which are:

(a) Plaintiff must file with the Attorney General an amended complaint covering points acceptable to the Attorney General.

(b) Plaintiff must post a cash bond with the Attorney General to cover court costs if the defendant prevails.

2. If the amended complaint is accepted by the Attorney General, the plaintiff may file suit within a reasonable time by issuing a complaint, which must be answered within 10 days after service of the defendant.

3. The case will be heard in Superior Court as would any other civil suit, except that the Attorney General will retain jurisdiction at all times and may stop the suit at his discretion. Just when the suit will get on the calendar is not known at this time.

It is my considered opinion that the suit will revolve around the events leading up to the adjournment of the June 13, 1966, meeting of the City Council. The question of the posting of the notice seems to have been resolved.

The wording "may file suit within a reasonable time" is quite vague and could mean anywhere from 30 days to two years. Since the timing of the suit is quite important to me (and it would appear irrational to defer filing), my attorney will be asked to follow this aspect of the suit quite closely and to ask the Attorney General for periodic reviews of the file.

The suit is therefore reduced to a simple civil suit, with the plaintiff paying for

Guitarist Appears At Meeting of SM Senior Citizens

The Oct. 14 meeting of the Sierra Madre Senior Citizens was called to order at 11:45 by the president, Frances Gardner. A prayer was given, a salute to the flag and singing of "God Bless America" and "The More We Get Together." They recessed for luncheon, after which the meeting resumed. Door prizes were drawn and given out by Charles Ring.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was given by Helen Hill, secretary pro-tem. The treasurer's report was read by Minette Ring. Lucille Pickett told of the progress of our member, Helen Bonn, and of seeing an old member, Claude Vedder.

Mrs. Ring, tour chairman, offered a theater trip to see "Funny Girl," and told of a proposed visit to Murietta Hot Springs if enough members are interested.

Sierra Madre Drops In Population

Sierra Madre is not keeping faith with the rest of the state when they show an increase in population, our city drops over the past year. Census figures for the year 1948 was 3,600 and from 1958 showed as follows:

1958, 8,863; 1959, 9,330; 1960, 9,732; 1961, 10,150; 1962, 10,658; 1963, 11,191; 1964, 11,300; 1965, 11,427; 1966, 12,000; 1967, 11,882.

Should this drop continue it will seriously affect the city's income from gas tax and motor vehicle license fee distribution and since the drop of 118 since January 1 to July 1 it has been estimated by the Los Angeles Regional Planning Commission that we have lost another 49. This, of course, may be picked up before the year's end.

Claude A. Hawley Dies Suddenly

Claude Albert Hawley, after a brief illness, passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 12. Born 78 years ago in Illinois, Mr. Hawley had been in California for 50 years. He was a merchant in Sierra Madre for many years, dealing in typewriter sales.

Editorial

by R. ROBERT EVANS

We fail to see why some people are completely comin' "unglued" and falling apart at the seams in the political hassel at this time. One would think an election was going to be held next Tuesday and everything derogatory should be said immediately.

Jack Kessock, chairman of the recall of Sorensen-King, stated on Thursday, October 12, he is nearing 4000 signatures on his recall petitions. Dean Bottorf, chairman of the recall of Maddox-Wagner, running one week behind the other petition solicitors says he is satisfied with his progress and his petitions will be filled. If these statements are true, we will be having an election sometime in the forepart of January.

It's ALL over but the cheering in the Quo Warranto proceedings against Ralph Rule. This was announced last Thursday afternoon, October 12, but still the "hate sheet," distributed to the public late Friday night and Saturday, and an area daily distributed to the public Sunday states erroneous facts about Ralph Rule's seat on the Council. You can read the TRUE story on this page.

We have reports that Councilwoman Maddox was observed feverishly spending time at a typewriter in an area newspaper office. It must have been that she did not have a typewriter of her own at her disposal. However, others believe it may be that she was pounding out on paper certain "personnel session" information. We are certain it was not King-Sorensen-Rule, who violated the stipulation that all information in personnel session, is "private information."

Anonymous threatening phone calls are reaching a feverish pitch throughout the city. It makes one ashamed to be a part of a population that stoops so low to accomplish absolutely nothing. Eggs thrown at a house and also splattered against the City Hall front has been reported and seen! What small children we have running hither and yon in our once quiet and respectable city.

But again, this is what a RECALL actually consists of. We have always been against this method! It certainly makes enemies of friends, and costs the city enormous dollars in business, makes liars out of half of us and cheats out of the other half. Small insignificant points are blown into mountains, and municipal business almost comes to a roaring halt.

Jack Kessock, in a talk with a News staff member, stated that he definitely knew where Maddox-Wagner stood relative to a proposed shopping center, and he wants to know where the others stand. Guess he wants to "poll" the Council and rack up another violation. This project has not as yet been before either the Planning Commission nor the City Council. In fact, it has not as yet been presented by those proposing such a project. It would definitely seem to us that this is a simple case of "prejudging" on the part of Maddox-Wagner, if they have told Kessock and his co-workers where they stand. This is a point that could become quite magnified when the project DOES come up for hearing.

The petitions will be signed. We will have an election. In the meantime, I am looking desperately for an ANGEL, or a FAIRY to take over the expenses of this newspaper, so I can either "Sail off into the sunset" or go back to school until the whole THING blows over.

Cub Scouts To Meet Oct. 26

Cub Scout Pack 390 will conduct the first pack meeting of the school year Thursday, October 26, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Park House in Memorial Park. The theme of this meeting will be to inform the boys and their parents of the plans and goals for the Cub Scouts.

Committee chairman Stanley Ehlers wishes to extend a special invitation to this meeting to boys age 8 to 11 who are interested in becoming Cub Scout and their parents.

Fergus Family 'Rough It' In High Sierras

Mrs. Neil (Ellen) Fergus and children, Jennifer, 8, and Douglas, 7, of 157 W. Grand View, spent the first week of October in the High Sierras. (Mr. Fergus was unable to accompany his family at this time.) Mrs. Fergus' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wood, of Arcadia and Oregon, have a cabin on 80 acres located between Bridgeport and Walker, in fact, in the middle of the Tolaybe National Forest.

Warfel Gets Recall Notice

Information reached the News as the deadline approached for this issue that City Clerk L. Marie Warfel had been served papers on "Notice of Intention to Circulate Recall Petition."

This is the fifth elected official to be served such papers, and petitions are now being circulated against Councilmen Sorensen-King and Wagner and Councilwoman Maddox.

Proponents of the intention claimed that said City Clerk, when denied the creation of a full time position at the fantastic compensation of $10,000 per year, has now attempted to gain by subterfuge what could not be obtained legally, i.e. she has accepted compensation for attempting to perform the duties of City Administrator. The City Clerk has no legal role in this area and such action is highly unethical, if not illegal.

Further, the Clerk has entered into the area of personnel relations, an area in which she has no legal right nor personal competence.

And further it is charged, said City Clerk has personally caused the City of Sierra Madre to waste hundreds of dollars on the keeping of voluminous minutes — pure featherbedding in the attempt to show a great volume of work done by the Office of City Clerk. This was also done in deference to the desires of Councilmen Wagner and Maddox, to whom she has shown extreme partiality. Further, she has also furnished assistance and information to the Councilmen Wagner and Maddox not

To Finance Rose Parade Entry

SM Boys and Girls To Sell Roses & Car Wash Tickets

Sierra Madre boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 18 signed up Saturday to sell roses and car wash tickets to finance the city's entry in the 1968 Tournament of Roses, Kom Tiki. Girls who sell roses and boys who help in the car wash on November 4 will be eligible to ride on the float, which will require three boys and three girls. Interested people who missed the Saturday sign ups may call Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hauck, parade participants chairman, at 355-0846 to register, before October 22.

The Rose Sale, the proceeds of which help to build the float each year, will be held on Friday and Saturday, October 27 and 28 and November 3 and 4 throughout the town. The car wash is scheduled for November 4 in the municipal parking lot on S. Baldwin through the generous cooperation of the city, Roberts Market and the Jined Richfield Station. One dollar tickets will be on sale until that date by the following boys: Kent Taylor, Gary Thurston, Robert Cowan, Glen Wingate, Darrell

Mott, David Darbyshire, Stephen Williams, Doug Birch, Tom Feeney, Ross Tyree, Dave Tucker and Joe Allen.

Indian Honored In Paintings By Myrtle Weese

In this beautiful collection of paintings, the artist, Myrtle Weese, (Mrs. Marvin Weese), has honored the Navajo Indian with several large paintings. In seeing these pictures, one feels grateful to the artist who has given her talent and effort to show the culture of our first inhabitants who have done so much—with so little—in their fine weavings and beautifully designed jewelry.

Myrtle and Marvin Weese have lived among the Arizona Indians, spending many vacations in their cottage on the reservation and attending many of their ceremonial dances—"an unforgettable experience," as Myrtle says.

The exhibit shows a variety of subjects, as she has had the best of foundations in art training, having first studied for several years with our well-remembered Alfred Dewey, as well as several of Pasadena's best teachers. Myrtle has been a member of many art clubs, including clubs in Los Angeles, where her paintings have won many prizes. Her name was accepted in "Who's Who in American Art," by Bowker, which book is in the libraries.

Lectures On Native Flora At Arboretum

The first in a series of six lectures surveying native plants and wild flowers of California will be given Friday, October 20, at 8 p.m. in the Lecture Hall of the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, 301 N. Baldwin Ave., Arcadia.

The speaker will be Percy C. Everett, superintendent of Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Garden, Claremont, since 1940, and officer of numerous horticultural societies and commissions. Mr. Everett will speak on "California Natives For Your Garden."

The lectures are sponsored by the Theodore Payne Foundation for Wild Flowers and Native Plants, Inc., a nonprofit organization dedicated to the perpetuation of the state's native flora.

Subsequent lectures will be given alternately at Descanso Gardens, La Canada, and the Arboretum. The next one will be at Descanso on Wednesday, November 1.

Bargain Hunters Get Ready!

Bi-Annual Rummage Sale Will Be Held October 26

The greatest of all rummage sales will hold its 105th twice-a-year sale, Thursday, October 26, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium, Green St. and Garfield.

Mrs. Herbert G. Porter, rummage chairman, for the sale has announced that the greatest amount of rummage ever has been collected. Since the Spring Sale, ladies of the Auxiliary have been collecting, sorting, pricing and storing the merchandise in warehouses, garages, extra bedrooms, and in any available place to be found. All are filled to the brim.

Bargain hunters will have a field day shopping in 25 separate departments, featuring such items as a very old and beautiful china doll, 17th Century Chinese theatre costume, an authentic leaded stained glass window to a bird cage or a child's bazooka gun, to mention but a few of the thousands of bargains to be had. A full length dark mink cape and several fur jackets will also be available. All are available to the public on a first come basis as soon as the doors open on sale day.

Pasa. Pop Warner Has 34 Girls To Cheer Them On

A football game isn't really complete without an attractive group of girls to cheer the team on. The Pop Warner Cheer Girls, 34 in all, are a spectacular group, dressed in their bright red and blue corduroy dresses with the "mini-mini" look. To complete their outfits, the girls wear sparkling white gloves, white tennis shoes, and carry large fluffy pom-poms. Most of the girls come from Pasadena, Altadena and La Canada, Sierra Madre is represented solely by Miss Debra Wagner.

At home games, on Saturday, there are four Pop Warner games at Victory Park. These girls cheer at all home games and provide the half-time entertainment. All do an excellent job under the direction of Mrs. Effie Green, Pop Warner secretary. Next home games will be on Saturday, Oct. 21, starting at 9 a.m. So, come on out, see for yourself.

Last Saturday and Sunday Pop Warner football results: Pee Wee Mustangs won, 12-6, over Charter Oaks; Pee Wee Bulldogs won, 29-0, over Baldwin Park; Midget Bulldogs won, 28-0, over West Covina, and Junior Bantam Bulldogs won, 33-6, over Monterey Park. Total for all four teams: 17 wins, 3 losses.

Fire Call Mon. P.M.

Nineteen regular Volunteer Firemen and two Reserves were called into action Monday evening at the hour of 9:51 to answer a fire call to the City Pool at 765 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. Engine 423 responded in one minute and 56 seconds with Engine 424 but seconds behind. It was found that a car registered to Vera Bascomb of 46 E. Laurel, the driver of which had failed to release the emergency brake, which became overheated, creating smoke, giving the driver and rider the feeling that the car was afire.

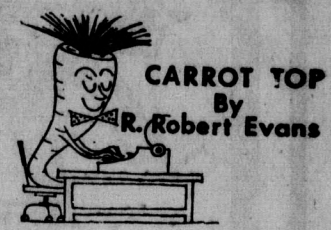

Chief Charles Brown reported no monetary damage and the men and engines returned to the station at 10:05.

Circus In SM October 21

The DeWayne 3 Ring International Circus will be in Sierra Madre, under the auspices of the VFW Post No. 3208 and the Ladies' Auxiliary. There will be two shows on Saturday, October 21, with the first show at 2 p.m. and the second show at 8 p.m. This year the circus will be held on West Sierra Madre Blvd., on the southside of the street between the Woman's Club House and Memorial Park.

All proceeds will be used by the veterans for their building fund.

The members at this time wish to thank all the Sierra Madre merchants for purchasing free tickets for the children under 12 years of age.

Do you realize that we have only 56 more shopping days until Christmas, and should you be a Seventh Day Adventist, you only have 46 more.

— CT —

Since the large advertisement from Macabob Toys last week, I have anxiously been watching every day for the Chamber of Commerce to put up their mail box in Kersting Court . . . I have my list all ready, and I do so want to get it in early, so everyone will have as little trouble as possible selecting my gifts.

— CT —

Of course a pre-Christmas gift that I would just love to have, and that is a full and overflow attendance at the 47th Annual Firemen's Christmas Dance.

— CT —

This year the dance will be held at the La Salle High School, where more room will allow for a greater attendance . . . It is also rumored and a fairly well-known fact . . . champagne will be on tap for those desiring same . . . Seems that a wine and beer licence is all that would be allowed.

— CT —

All firemen now have tickets, and they are in books of 10 tickets. They need your help to provide the funds that will be used for the distribution of toys and food to the less fortunate during the Christmas season. The money received from this activity is put into a special fund. It is used for this purpose only in addition to the Easter Egg Hunt in the spring, and the arrival of Santa Claus in December with candy, nuts and apples and oranges that is so traditional for the Sierra Madre Firemen. Ask any of the boys for a book of tickets . . . You will put a smile on their faces.

— CT —

Did you know that in America we account for only 6% of the world's population, yet we own 49% of the wealth of the world? . . . It's true, and here are some more astounding facts should anyone ask you "What's wrong with America and the United States?"

— CT —

1. Our educational system is second to none.
2. We are the most prosperous nation in the world.
3. Our standard of living is the highest in the world.
4. We produce more goods—consume more goods—transport more goods than any nation in the world.
5. We own 29% of the world's railroad mileage.
6. We own 60% of the automobiles in the world.
7. We own 47% of all trucks in the world.
8. We own 43% of all radios in the world.
9. We own 35% of the electric power output of the world.
10. We own 25% of the steel in the world.

— CT —

Be proud to be an American, living in the good old United States . . . right now Sierra Madre is not the healthiest place in the world, but soon this too will pass and life will return to some sort of normalcy, and this, indeed, I sincerely hope.

— CT —

If I could wave a magic wand and stop all the cursing, back biting, bickering and lying, I would not hesitate a minute in doing so. But since I have no magic wand, then let me leave you with this one thought before I travel on . . . "Let's not cuss so loud and long, bicker and back bite so much, and be a little more honest, unless we upset

CARROT TOP

OUR CONFIDENCE IN OURSELVES. . . It's enuf said for the present.
— CT —
Getting back to the Christmas list . . . have you noticed that Sierra Madre stores are starting to receive their Christmas merchandise? . . . and while we are talking about it, most of these stores have a lay-away plan. I will just bet you that one of them will be glad to take your selection from their brand new merchandise and put your name on it and lay it away for you to pick up soon before December 25. Just ask any one of them . . . and what a pleasure it would be to watch all the others rushing around trying to find what they want, taking odd sizes, odd colors and then on some items, taking substitutes. . . and all you have to do is walk into the store and tell the merchant that you are here to pick up the gifts that you selected in October. It's a thought that should not be overlooked, and now is the time.
— CT —
The following is something that I have been thinking about for a long time, so in closing up this week's chit chat I will attempt to put it down on paper and send it to you with the warmest of feelings:
— CT —
"Having agreed that the majority should prescribe rules which we will obey in pursuit of our individual aims, we find ourselves more and more subjected to the orders and arbitrary will of its agents."
— CT —
"Significantly enough, we find not only that most of the supporters of unlimited democracy soon become defenders of arbitrariness of the view that we should trust experts to decide what is good for the community, but that most enthusiastic supporters of such unlimited powers of the majority are often those very administrators who know best that, once such powers are assumed, it will be they and not the majority who will in fact exercise them." . . . With this I close in saying God be with all of you during these trying times . . . I hope, I hope, I hope.

Admitted to Sierra Madre Community Hospital the first of last week was Raymond Sondergard, whose home is at 126 Esperanza.

Are you paying for part-time auto insurance?

Ask Yourself These Questions:

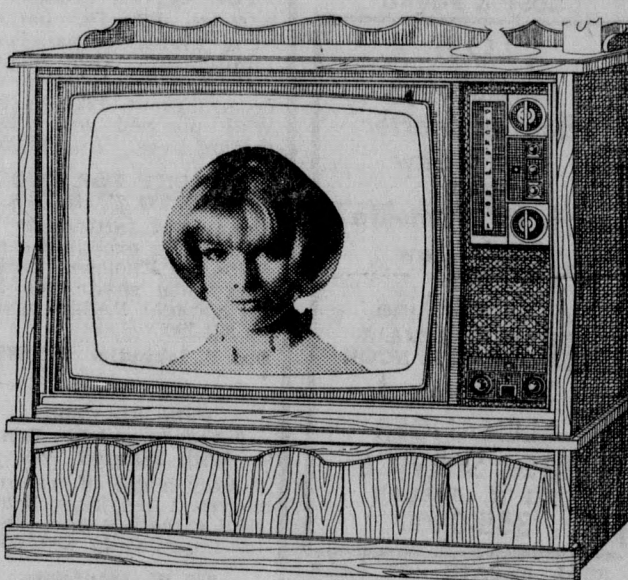

- Are your liability limits high enough? Or, would an adverse court judgment use up all your insurance and wipe out your other assets, too?
 - Who would you turn to if you had a crack-up, 2,000 miles from home?
 - And who would have to wrestle with all those reports, claim papers, police questionnaires, etc., etc.? You?
 - Do you have all the auto insurance you need? Do you have the right kinds?
- Does your auto insurance pass this test? If not, you're paying for part-time protection. That means it's high time you insured under The Travelers umbrella. Call us today.

THE FINEST IN TELEVISION

Packard Bell. BALBOA

Model No. CRW 402
With 295 Sq. In. Picture Tube

BCW-4 Matching Base With Casters Optional
Packard Bell Exclusive ICP "PUSH-BUTTON INSTANT COLOR PURITY" — Packard Bell "Instant Color Purity" demagnetizes and repurifies the picture — at the touch of a button — without turning the set off. There need be no costly service calls, no delays and no adjustments to correct pictures that have been distorted by a magnetic field. Now you can move your Color set and operate electrical appliances around it at any time. This important feature is another example of the exclusive electronic advancements engineered into Packard Bell Color TV. All color television sets are subject to outside magnetic effects, and true color as well as clean, clear, black-and-white pictures can be delivered only when distortive magnetic fields are removed. The combination of basic colors that make up the picture must always be "on target" — free from distractions. Push-button Instant Color Purity is standard equipment on most Packard Bell color sets.

COLOR TV COMPUTER CONTROL PANEL — Here is easy tuning! Color Controls are conveniently located, marked and color-coded to simplify tuning. A Computer Dial for VHF tuning flashes the station of your choice on a read-out panel for easy identification from anywhere in the room and Packard Bell's Spotlit Slide-rule Dial accurately pinpoints your UHF channel selection. With Set-N-Forget VHF fine tuning you tune each individual station just once, and from then on your set is locked-in for the best picture every time you change channels. Space Age easy tuning is exclusively yours from Packard Bell!
Packard Bell Handcrafted Cabinets . . . THE REAL DIFFERENCE IS IN THE FURNITURE — Truly distinctive cabinetry demands care and attention through every stage of its manufacture: from the selection of fine hardwoods to the hand-rubbing required for superb finishing.

The authentic styles offered you reflect the heritage of the past and the best of today's furniture styles. Craftsmanship, fine design and quality are evident in the appearance, the feel and the good taste of every all-hardwood cabinet created by Packard Bell's furniture facilities.
FINE FURNITURE — Packard Bell invites the "knock-on-wood" test for the proof of true furniture cabinetry. Precise mitre construction throughout; heavy duty wood-blocks in corners; traditional gluing and screwed wood cleats and double-dowelling — all guarantee superior construction. Genuine hardwoods and the most handsome of veneers are scientifically balanced for a long and warp-free life. Proven furniture finishing methods are used in every detail. Luxurious stains and durable lacquers are applied with care and hand-rubbed to perfection. Packard Bell's fine furniture finishing alone requires 20 or more hand operations.

REMOTE CONTROL READY — Another exclusive Packard Bell feature brings you the most advanced of remote controls which can be installed anytime — now or later. Installation can be made in the home; or later, the remote control system of your choice can be added in minutes. You can easily tune your favorite program from anywhere in the room without leaving your chair . . . This most modern of electronic engineering offers maximum enjoyment with a minimum of effort. Choose the remote control which pleases your personal taste. There are three optional models for your Packard Bell color set, each with exclusive Packard Bell features to make your color viewing the greatest of pleasures.

HIGH FIDELITY RARE-EARTH TRUE COLOR PICTURE TUBE — Rare earth phosphors greatly increase brightness and contrast in the picture and give improved color fidelity. These tubes are bonded and etched for glare-proof performance. The Perma-Chrome feature provides Locked-In Color Purity by a new temperature-compensated, shadow-mask mounting. From a cold turn-on throughout normal operation this Perma-Chrome feature will provide both optimum color purity, and white screen uniformity.

HAND-WIRED RANGEFINDER CHASSIS — The world's best components are custom assembled, hand-wired and hand-soldered to create the finest Color TV console chassis offered in the industry. These details, combined with the most advanced engineering features, assure long life and the finest performance anywhere. The matchless performance, sharp detail and undistorted clarity are what you can expect from your Packard Bell Super Rangefinder Color Chassis. For maximum performance and reliability, the Super Rangefinder Color Chassis is protected for life by a Packard Bell Quality feature — Power Guard transformer with circuit breaker fusing.

Fergus Family Rough It In High Sierras

You might say, and rightly so, that the cabin is in the wilderness. No indoor plumbing of any kind exists in the cabin; water has to be carried from a nearby stream. Cooking and heating was done with a wood stove. Heating was definitely necessary since average morning temperature was 30 degrees while the high for the day ran between 65 and 70 degrees. Coleman lanterns were the means of illumination.

Doug caught three rainbow trout while Jennifer caught two of the yummy fish. Needless to say, these trout found their way to the frying pan and were eaten with much savor by a couple of thrilled kids and three proud grown-ups.

Another new experience for the children was to see real working cowboys using lassos in cutting the yearlings out of the herd. The cowboys were from a cattle ranch located nearby on the Little Walker, a branch of the Walker River. Some panning for gold was done, however, Ellen Fergus assures us it was to no avail. Then, Mrs. Fergus made a trip to the Donner Memorial, located on highway 89, which follows the original trail of the early pioneers. While the road is kept in good repair, Mrs. Fergus found it horrifying to think of traveling along it

PTA Membership Enrollment Week Starts October 23

The week of October 23 is PTA Membership Enrollment Week in Sierra Madre. Many new members are welcomed into the PTA every month, but October, by tradition, has become that time of year when a special invitation is issued to the adults in every community to enroll as PTA members. Membership envelopes accompanied by informative notes will be sent home with the children and it is hoped that all parents and others interested in youth will accept the invitation of the PTA to enroll as active participating members.

DEAR SULLY — Hey boy, didn't ole Editor Bob really snooker the Hate Sheet and a Councilmember into printing the ADAMS letter, without expense to him, or having to take the brunt of hatred from either camp. That's politics boy, just pure simple politics — BBH and TURN. BULL.

Dear Editor Bob:
Isn't that Jack Miller, who cries for Jan and Ed in the hate sheet, the same Jack Miller who is referred to in the approved Council minutes wherein a tape recording was removed from City Hall, taken to an electronics expert and PROCESSED.

Memo to Sev and Ralph:
Sometime ago "teacher" Jeanne said she wrote all that drivel in the Clarion. Just said so unless young Wagner or Miss Bradley had a tape recorder going in that personnel session when Larry Adams was discussed. (Do you think the room is bugged?) Matters in Personnel Sessions are presumably confidential but this doesn't mean anything to Jan and Ed anyway and they are the only ones who would have known about the so-called firing.

When you consider the last (I hope) issue of the hate sheet, filled with the oxy-moronic ramblings of one Jack A. (oops) Miller, the amateur Psephologist, and the imbecilic prattlings of funny boy P. Tear-up along with stories by Ed and Jan, this has to be one of the greatest congeries of garbage ever seen in yellow dog journalism.

Model T Ford Club To Tour Sierra Eng. Co.

On Sunday, Oct. 22, the Model T Ford Club of Southern California will have a very special day in Sierra Madre planned for them by Tour Leaders Jerry and Mary Morris of 234 Santa Anita Court.

Club members will meet at Arcadia County Park and leave for the Sierra Engineering Company in Sierra Madre at 10 a.m. sharp. At Sierra Engineering they will go on a personally conducted 1 1/4-hour tour where they will learn about the manufacturing of equipment for outer space, and of live-saving oxygen equipment used by the Air Force. A guide will discuss the various manufacturing processes along with the products themselves. They also will see how artificial limbs are constructed and used and learn about the break-away dummies used in the studies of high-speed accidents.

About 12 noon, upon completion of the tour, the party will adjourn for lunch, after which they will drive over to John and Mary Walgamott's "T" Barn and Antiques for a tour of their very interesting collection and a cup of coffee, finally winding up a busy day at about 4 p.m.

PIGSKIN DISASTER AREA

THROW OUT THE CRYSTAL BALL, declare Old Hankus' office, a disaster area, take away his card to the "ancient order of prognosticators," ride him out of town on a rail. Either that or forget his last week's picking record of 11-8-1 and write it off to a swelled head and/or shock of picking the world series incorrectly.

The Old boy is now down to a 70-28-4 season's mark and that is just barely over 70 per cent. It's 71.4 per cent to be exact. About the only thing he did right was tab the mighty Trojans to trounce the Irish.

WITH THE MEMORY of his great USC prediction still kicking around in the back of his head and the Pittsburgh-Baltimore choices for pennantsville rapidly fading from his recall, Old Hankus fearlessly wades into this week's grid guesses.

PICK PASADENA to drop Santa Barbara. The Lancers came alive with their 25-0 win over Pierce and should be ready to attack WSC opposition with renewed vigor.

BLAIR on its way to the CIF championship should be able to handle crosstown rival Muir and PASADENA will rebound from their upset at the hands of Crescenta by dropping Burbank.

THOSE WHO SAY USC always loses at Washington simply have not checked the records. As a matter of fact the Trojans are 8-6-2 at Seattle and this week they will bring their number of wins to nine. Their main problem will be to keep from suffering a letdown after the great win over Norte Dame. That's McKay's job and Old Hankus has faith in him.

UCLA should be able to handle upset-minded Stanford... ARIZONA STATE looks like a good one and is our pick to whip Washington St. (We were wrong on the Cougars two weeks in a row)... PURDUE over Oregon State from here to there... SYRACUSE to drop California, but we'd pick the other way around if the game were in Strawberry Canyon.

A SNEAKY NOD TOWARD ALABAMA in their traditional tiff with Tennessee. The Vols are tough but Bear Bryant always manages to win the "big" ones... GEORGIA TECH over Auburn in a "pick 'em" type game... CLEMSON to upset Duke as the Tigers are long overdue... FRESNO STATE to hand Cal State L.A. its fifth straight loss but not by much.

MICHIGAN to knock Indiana from the unbeaten ranks in the limberlawler of the week... MICHIGAN STATE over Minnesota... NORTHWESTERN to out-pass Ohio State in a battle of "have-nots"... TEXAS A & M to get back-to-back victories by downing TCU... TEXAS TECH to upset Florida State.

THE RAM-COLT fiasco on the big tube last Sunday was strictly a farce. How could professional play-for-pay athletes put on such a shoddy performance. Penalties on virtually every other play. The Rams will have to be at their best against Otto Graham's Washington Redskins. Make it Rams 27, Skins 24... The Chargers have a solid head of steam and may yet be the AFL representative in the Super Bowl this year. CHARGERS 38, Denver 21.

DICK WILLIAMS and his Boston Dandies really didn't lose much lustre in their series loss to the Cardinals. How in the devil did they win the A.L. pennant in the first place with that pitching staff?

OLD HANKUS had a chat with Williams just after he was named manager. He said the Bosox would be strong because of improved pitching. He won the pennant, but not with a strong pitching staff. How can the rumors that Boston pitching coach, Sal Maglie, is on the way out possibly be true?

DR. JOHN THIE is giving speeches these days on the advantages of isotonic and isometric exercises. Claims in the short span of six minutes per day a persons can add or subtract inches and stay physically fit.

PASADENA BOBBY LILLIS has been given his outright release by the Houston Astros. Lillis battled .244 with one double and five RBIs resulting from his 20 bingles.

FROM THE Fire Side

To show the spirit of cooperation that the firemen display take the example of Lee Graves and Joe Grippi. Now that Lee has moved closer to the fire house and close to Joe Grippi, they have worked out a system. Joe will call Lee to wake him up when there is a fire and Lee will run over and help "ole" Joe down the stairs. Seems like Joe's circulation ain't been the same since he kidnapped several of the boys and took them to a topless bar.

Keep up the good work Lee, and we know Joe will let the phone ring long enough to wake even you up.

Speaking of moving into their new "older" home. It has a scar on the stairwell wall where Ron Hall, who was helping Lee move in, left Lee stranded holding one end of the box springs when the fire horn sounded. Lee let his part loose also in order to attempt to catch the rigs on their way to the fire. Lee's wife Ann, is head-hunting for the pair of them. I sure hope she makes the grade.

Leonard Hall celebrated his birthday the other day and he had so many candles on it he had to use a CO2 extinguisher (the large economy size) to put out the blaze. I sure hope I look as good as Len when I get to be as old as him.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner (Patricia) Nash with small daughter, Anne, drove down from their home in Concord, Calif., to spend last week visiting Sumner's parents, Robert and Leone Nash of 412 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. Undoubtedly, little one year old Anne got a double share of attention.

Assistant Ritz At Shakespeare Club

On Tuesday, October 24, at 1:30 p.m. in the Shakespeare Club auditorium Mary Dorr, national president of American Women in Radio and Television, will present book dramatizations and book reviews. Mary Dorr makes you feel yourself a vital part of the entire drama. Mrs. William R. Mayhew is program chairman.

Mrs. Harold D. Wiener, president of the Shakespeare Club of Pasadena, will preside at the noon luncheon in Stratford House. The Legal Interests Committee, Mrs. Arthur L. Canty, chairman, will present Assistant District Attorney William L. Ritz who will speak on "Law Enforcement Today."

'Motive Conscious' Will Be Sermon

Rev. David G. Howell will deal with questions when he presents his sermon, "Motive Conscious," at the 10 a.m. worship service at Sierra Madre Congregational Church on Sunday.

He asks, "Does it make any difference to God why we do what we do? Does God care what motives lie behind our words and deeds?"

Mr. Howell says, "It is clear from the earliest human story in Scripture that God is motive conscious. He put the question of 'Why' to Adam, then to Eve, then to Cain, and to leaders and people a thousand times in the following years."

Phone Rate Reductions

General Telephone Lowers Interstate Calls In Nov.

Lower long distance telephone charges for General Telephone Company's local customers will result from recently announced rate reductions for calls from California to points in other continental states, Henry Schull, division manager, announced recently.

The nationwide rate reductions will go into effect November 1 and will apply to interstate calls beyond 468 miles. A total dollar savings to the public of more than $100 million is expected to be realized through a combination of lower charges and lengthening of time periods in which lower rates are in effect, Schull stated.

He said the rate changes include:

1) Cutting the maximum charge for the first three minutes on interstate station-to-station calls from $2 to $1.75 during daytime hours (from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.)

2) Lowering the maximum station-to-station evening rate on interstate calls from $1.50 to $1.25 for the first three minutes and applying it from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. rather than from the current 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

3) Initiation of a new mid-night to 7 a.m. maximum charge of 75 cents for the first three minutes on interstate calls dialed by the customer himself. This new rate also will be available in non-Direct Distance Dialing areas where the customer must place his call through the operator. It will not apply, however, to calls made from coin telephones.

4) Expanding the night rate maximum $1 charge for the first three minutes on interstate station-to-station calls requiring special operator handling. It will now be available from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. Monday through Friday, all day Saturday and Sunday, and Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day and two newly added holidays, Independence Day and Labor Day. (This refers specifically to calls placed through the operator, such as collect calls, requests for times and charges, third party billings, etc.)

5) Reducing the day person-to-person rate on interstate calls from $3.50 to $3.30 for the first three minutes. This will be in effect from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

6) Reducing the night person-to-person rate on interstate calls from $3 to $2.85. This will apply from 5 p.m. to 7 a.m.

"This represents the 22nd major cut in interstate rates since the nationwide service was inaugurated in 1915. At that time, a three-minute call from San Francisco to New York, based on the lowest rate then available, would have cost the customer $20.70. But now that same call can be placed for a mere 75 cents during the newly established, lowest rate schedule.

"The cost of a specific call made from the local area, of course, will depend on the time of day the call is placed, what part of the country it is made to, and the length of that particular call," explained the local telephone executive.

Arts And Crafts At Garden Club

Articles to make for Christmas will be featured in the arts and crafts demonstration and display by Mrs. Patrick Fagan at the October 24 meeting of the Hastings Ranch Garden Club. Members will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Grisham who will be hostess for luncheon assisted by co-hostess Mrs. Charles Callow.

Meeting To Have Stock Talk, Film

Arcaadia Tri-Delta Alumnae will enjoy a stimulating and informative program on the stock market, Tuesday, October 24, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. John Thompson, 1833 West Drive, San Marino.

Featured speaker for the evening will be Mr. Jack Andrews, Jr., of Lester, Ryons and Co. in Pasadena. Mr. Andrews will discuss various aspects of the stock market as well as show a film entitled "The Lady in the Stock Market," which will set the theme of the program. Mr. Andrews has had 14 years experience in all phases of the securities business and is presently co-manager of the Pasadena office of Lester, Ryons and Co. He is active in many community and professional organizations and is president of the Pasadena Bond Club this year.

Mrs. William Snaer, also of San Marino, and Mrs. Lawrence Atkinson of Arcaadia will be co-hostesses for the evening. Refreshments will be served following a short business meeting. All Tri-Deltas in the San Gabriel Valley are welcome to attend. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Thompson at 284-7629.

One of the finest museums I have seen in a long time is right under our nose. I am referring to the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History in Exposition Park. This place is stuffed full of the darndest collection of things you have ever seen. There is something for everyone including real honest-to-goodness airplanes and racer cars. The RTD has good to excellent service to this fun spot . . . local lines 41 - 49 - 5 - 18 plus many connecting lines from all parts of the system. This is a place you can take the kids and spend very little besides the day.

I went by the Music Center last week and noticed the delightful shows coming this fall. Los Angeles is indeed fortunate to have this beautiful show place and I urge all who haven't seen it to do so soon. While there — walk across the street to see the new Department of Water and Power Building. Spectacular! The Music Center is served by RTD from several areas direct and many by transferring.

RTD, for example, has 7 lines that stop very near the Center, the 39 - 42 - 91 - 93 - 94 - 35. Try one; you might like it.

If you have youngsters below the age of 18, chances are they have never ridden a passenger train. Not only that, there is a distinct possibility that they may miss out completely if they don't act soon.

Now Dad, this is a good opportunity to make points with Junior. Take him by bus to the Union Station and show him how we survived before the jet. RTD has at least 12 lines within a block or two of the depot. You could be doing this while Mom takes the car to have her hair done.

Q. I am interested in going to Riverside Raceway to see some of the events, but I do not have a car. Is there bus service from Alhambra to the race track? B.J.L.
A. RTD can get you to Riverside very nicely, B.J., but from Riverside to the race track is one heck of a walk. How about horse racing?

Q. Can I get from South El Monte to General Hospital? I will be going in the evenings on Wednesday and Sunday. Mrs. Rule

A. Mrs. Rule, you can catch a 63M at Tyler and Garvey Boulevard in the evening that will take you to Marengo and Mission, just a short walk to the hospital. Check the 63 timetable I will send you for a time that you can use.

Q. Does RTD have bus service to Montclair? I live in El Monte. Carl T.

A. The 60 line goes through Montclair on Arrow Highway, but that is not exactly downtown. If it meets your needs, you can catch it at the El Monte Station about every hour.

Q. I noticed a sign inside a bus I rode telling about Carousel and Melodyland Theatres. It mentions the buses that go to the theatres. Will you send me timetable of these lines? P.L.

A. You're very observing, P.L., and the management of these establishments would probably be happy. Yes, I will send you timetables and a map.

Q. How do I get to Whittier from El Monte? I will be attending Whittier College next semester. R.H.

A. Catch the RTD 38 line from El Monte stations and get off on Painter just across from the college. P.S. If you are under 21 don't forget to buy a Student Privilege Card; it will save you a bundle.

Send your questions to Transportation Editor, Artie Dee, care of this newspaper. All questions will be answered in this column, or by mail. A system map will be sent free to each person submitting a question, or call 747-4455 for detailed information.

Letters To the Editor You and Your Neighbors

Dear Editor:

After wading through rolls of red tape, I have finally reached the point of understanding our foreign policy. Once you realize the great planning and sinister motives behind the policy, you will no longer criticize the present Administration in Washington.

There are three phases in our foreign policy. Phase one is building bridges. All have heard our President say that, only through building bridges can the cold war with our Communist friends be won (not to mention the occasional sacrifice of an American youth, which only further proves the necessity of building bridges).

Phase two is one of necessity, for what good are bridges without highways connecting them? Therefore, through our financial support of the United Nations, we are helping to build a major freeway for the Russians, which will connect most of Southeast Asia. This freeway, by the way, is truly that — free — for the Americans are building it. To assure that engineering problems don't hamper progress, we have a corps of American Army Engineers helping to build this major freeway. If plans go smoothly, the Communists may have the road workable in time to serve as a supply line for the Vietnam war, even though it may take from ten to twenty years to complete. But McNamara and other high-ranking U.S. officials say that the war in Vietnam could last twenty-five years or more.

With the completion of phases one and two, we will have built the bridges and interconnecting freeways. This leaves only one problem to face the Communists — automobiles. Apparently their economy has not taken into consideration the need for travel. So as not to cause any serious challenge to their system, we have again come to the rescue. You guessed it! We will supply the cars; that is, we are going to finance the building of a huge flat plant in Russia and supply the necessary tools.

The over-all plan is this — get Russia to have as many cars on the road as we do. Then, let them figure out the ways to get rid of the smog.

The third in a continuing series of Youth Masses sponsored by the Youth Leadership Group of St. Rita's Parish was held at 4:30 p.m. last Sunday, October 15. The Mass, to which all young people in the Sierra Madre area had been invited was held at Alverno Heights on the terrace. Father Joseph Caldwell, chaplain at Loyola University, was the celebrant and La Salle and Alverno's glebe clubs lent support to the congregation in singing contemporary liturgical hymns. There will be more of these Youth Masses in the future sponsored by the group.

Irene (Mrs. Russell) Delahoe telephoned with the report that all went well at the C.F.R.A.—California Federated Republican Women's Association—convention in San Francisco last weekend. All delegates from this area found the convention to be very inspiring and were pleased with the election results for state officers. Angela Lombardi of Glendale was elected president, and Elsa Sandstrom of Palo Alto was elected vice president. There were nine voting delegates from the East Pasadena-Sierra Madre Republican Women's Club who attended the convention.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Woodward attended the 1967 Amateur Horse Show sponsored by the Rose Bowl District, San Gabriel Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, at the Flintridge Riding Club Grounds in La Canada.

Troop 373, sponsored by the Sierra Madre Congregational Church, and Troop 374, sponsored by the Trinity Presbyterian Church, were among the Scouting units which had booths at the show. This three day show featured 53 events with horses and riders from all over Southern California.

Mrs. Richard Carey, president of The Friends of the Sierra Madre Library, announced that through the club's auspices a new service will be made available to the community.

The organization has leased a photocopier and installed it within the Sierra Madre Library. Since, according to the group, there is no place in Sierra Madre where a single exact copy of material can be obtained, it was decided to lease the machine on a 3-months trial to see if there really is a need for this type of service.

This photocopier is a coin-operated, self-service machine that copies one page at a time. However, a page from a book may be copied, as well as one single loose sheet of material.

Six hundred copies a month must be made on the machine, states Mrs. Carey, in order to meet the monthly rental fee. There is no profit for the organization, and they offer this strictly as a service to the community. Everyone is invited to the Library to view the photocopier and, of course, make use of it.

Some Scholarships Are Available To Veteran's Kids

Members of Sierra Madre American Legion Auxiliary, Unit No. 297, met October 12 at the home of Mrs. Effie Pratt, 130 Alta in Arcadia. Mrs. Ornelia Henderson, who had spent six weeks visiting her daughter, Twila in Santa Fe, New Mexico, was welcomed home. A visitor was Mrs. Shelby Cowart.

Mrs. Edna Fallor read an article on the education program of the organization. A number of scholarships are available to the children of veterans who are in need of assistance and who can qualify. All residents are urged to visit the public schools during National Education week, Nov. 5 - 11. The scholarship booklet "Need A Lift" has been made available to the public at the Sierra Madre Library and Mt. Alverno High School.

According to Mrs. Effie Pratt, Malaysia will be the country to be studied and assisted through CARE in the Foreign Relations program. The unit has received thanks from the Philippine government for their donation which enabled wells to be dug for better water supply in the Philippines in the 1966 Foreign Relations program.

A number of local people attended the Junior Activities sponsored evening on September 30 at the Lawrence Welk Show. One half of the proceeds of all tickets sold will help the junior members to hold a week of study and recreation. The Child Welfare report was given by chairman, Lucile Pickett. All cases helped are known only as case numbers to all except the chairman.

One thousand three hundred and fifty poppies were ordered to be offered to the public at a once a year sale in May. These poppies are made by veterans at San Fernando Veterans Hospital. Members also have completed two bath robes for this hospital.

The next meeting will be at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, October 24, at the home of Mrs. Thelma Proctor, to sew for San Fernando Hospital.

Blue Birds & Campfire Groups Back To Organization & Projects

Along with back-to-school activities and the accompanying scheduled, Blue Bird and Camp Fire groups have been busy organizing, re-registering and generally re-grouping for what promises to be an exciting and constructive year of new experiences, projects, service, and just good fun.

The annual new group organization meeting was held on Saturday morning, Oct. 7, at Sierra Mesa School for all interested girls and their mothers. On hand to help hostess and represent the Camp Fire program were: Singing Blue Birds, third graders at Sierra Mesa under the leadership of Mrs. Donald Bohler who sang a Blue Bird song; Paul Foote's sixth graders at Mesa, Oda Kanya Lo Lua Cl, sang a Camp Fire song, and Konda Wa Ki Tuk, sixth grade Sierra Madre girls, guardian, Mrs. Richard Barden explained the seven crafts and the symbolism of their ceremonial gowns and jackets. The Flying Blue Birds at Sierra Mesa whose leader is Mrs. Donald Plaunt, made Blue Bird favors for each of the new girls to take home. Refreshments, of course, were served.

Two Honored At Eastern Star Tea

Mrs. Grace Summers, Worthy Matron, and George Rosell, Worthy Patron, Sierra Madre Chapter No. 299, Order of the Eastern Star, were honored at a tea Sunday in the home of Mrs. Leila Roberts on East Algonia, given under the auspices of the Social Club of the Chapter.

Mrs. Leila Roberts, Mrs. Alice Morrison, and Mrs. Ella Rosell, all Past Matrons of the Chapter, poured for the many Eastern Star friends who attended from nearby Chapters.

County Supervisors Submit Storm Drain Status Report

County supervisors have received and filed the quarterly report on status of the 1958 and 1964 storm drain bond issue programs, Supervisor Warren Dorn said recently.

The rundown was prepared by County Flood Control District Chief Engineer Walter J. Wood in accordance with a Supervisors' directive adopted in January.

The supervisor said the latest tabulation shows plans for 99 per cent of the regular projects called for under the 1958 program have been received for processing. Of these, 179 out of a total of 184 or 97 per cent have been advertised for bids or constructed. A like percentage of construction funds has been committed or spent on these projects.

The 1958 program includes 62 projects authorized for installation out of construction savings on regular jobs. Plans for 74 per cent of these have been received, 52 per cent have been advertised or built, and 46 per cent of the funds allocated have been spent or committed.

A review of the overall status of the 1958 program — both regular and supplemental — reveals that plans for 93 per cent have been turned in for processing. Eighty-six per cent representing 211 projects out of the 246 called for, have been advertised or built, Dorn said.

Dollar-wise, a total of $161 million of the total construction funds allotment of $179 million has been spent or committed.

The supervisor said plans for 59 per cent of the projects included in the 1964 program have been received for processing. Of this total, 37 per cent have been constructed or advertised for bids.

In construction funds, $42 million out of a total of $196 million have been spent or committed to various projects. This is up $8 million since the July report and is expected to rise sharply with receipt of larger drainage projects for review and bid advertising. Plans for projects under both programs are prepared by the cities in which they will be built and by the County Engineer for unincorporated areas, Dorn said. The Flood Control District is responsible for construction, operation and maintenance.

Just stopped to think what a disposable world we are living in. You could start out in the morning and brush your teeth with a disposable brush, or if you didn't want to use a brush there is a product that just plain foams away from your teeth. Course you've got to be careful of the company you keep or you might be hauled in for rabies. You can wash and dry with throwaway cloths and towels and little leaves of soap that dissolve away.

Trot out and get a package of cereal in a box that serves as a throwaway dish. It's pre-sugared for you and of course you could use a throw-away spoon and a carton of milk.

After breakfast you could dress in a throwaway paper dress and whip around the house dusting with the hem of your skirt or with a dress you've already thrown away.

If it isn't throw away it's pre-mixed, pre-chewed, or pre-digested. Frozen, ready to heat, or shaken in a jar and then served. It all tends to make me feel a little insecure. I realize that the manufacturers are just striving in their own way to make life easier for me, the housewife, but it has kind of a reverse effect. Who needs me when all a person has to do is zip open a package and pop it into a mouth, oven, icebox, or trash can. How can you smile with the pride of accomplishment over a dinner all prepared out of boxes?

It's no wonder that there are so many disposable marriages, people are just getting in the habit of easy living and throw away conveniences.

I'm all for getting back to kneading bread and beating meat with a plate to tenderize it. You don't have to eat it, but it does make you feel like you are doing something real useful for the family!

The birthday flag is up this week for Uncle Fred Boshysheil. A group of his neighbors got together for a potluck dinner to mark the occasion.

A happy birthday, as well, to Mr. Edward G. Schwartz who celebrated his 94th birthday on October 11. He is the father of Mr. Edward D. Schwartz of Claremea Lane. They celebrated with a family dinner in his honor.

Although the family was strongly pulling for the "Red Sox," Mr. Skipper Rostker and his two boys, Murphy and Steve, felt that they had their money's worth in the way of excitement. At the last minute Skipper was able to get three tickets for the series so he flew back with Steve and met Murphy, who is a senior in college in New York.

The big excitement last weekend was the Candle Light and Flowers dinner dance for the benefit of Cystic Fibrosis Research of Children's Hospital.

Traditionally it is a beautiful ball and this year was no exception. It was held in the newly decorated Vietnamese Room of the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel.

The room was beautifully adorned with gold candelabras on gold draped tables with fresh fall flowers artistically arranged throughout the room.

During the early hours of the evening there was a strolling musician mingling with the crowd entertaining with his gay music. There were several pre-dance cocktail parties on the hill to get the evening started.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardison and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Watts co-hosted for a group of friends which also included some of the associate members. It was held at the Hardison's Fairpoint home.

In their group were Mrs. Ann Brown, Mr. Kenneth Slavin, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Slavin, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Considine, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Cleve Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rechtenwald, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bacon.

The associates in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hagerman, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patch, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Sandro.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fox of Mesita invited Mr. and Mrs. Wells Plaes, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Curtiss, Mr. and Mrs. William Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baugh, and Mr. and Mrs. George Fry.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dickson co-hosted a pre-dance party at the Stearns Country Lane home.

Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Brolin, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Mathieu, and Mr. and Mrs. James Cross.

The Dominic Giangre-gorio's home was the scene of another large party co-hosted by Mr. and Mrs. William Olson.

Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huckaby, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kirvan, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Majich, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Ong, Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roeth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray, and Mr. and Mrs. James Verhovek.

Cloud Seed Program To Be Extended

County Flood Control District's cloud seeding program will be continued during the upcoming winter season under terms of an agreement approved by the Board of Supervisors recently.

Supervisor Warren Dorn said approval of the pact with North American Weather Consultants of Santa Barbara was recommended by District Chief Engineer Walter J. Wood.

Dorn said the new agreement will run for one year starting November 15. Rainfall for the 1966-67 season was 154 per cent of the long-time average, topping the average for the second successive year, the Supervisor noted. Seeding operations were conducted during sixteen storm periods for a total of 1,837½ generator hours.

Take-Home Pay

...to spend ^{anywhere} ~~as~~ we please

WE MAY get our money from a job in industry, from a one-chair shoeshine business, or for working as janitor, bank president, or some other useful activity. But what we do with what's left after taxes is our own personal business.

Of course, with some necessities coming first, we may not always get to buy WHAT we'd like to, but there isn't much to keep us from spending our money anyWHERE we please.

And this decision...WHERE to buy...is pretty important...because WHERE we spend a dollar has considerable bearing on WHERE and how handily we can get our dollars in the future.

When we choose to spend our money in our own community, where its circulation can create many more dollars of trade volume to boost our local economy, then we can make a better living easier here.

Sierra Madre Boy Completes Basic

Marine Private David L. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Peterson, of 275 W. Montecito, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

Katie Grijalva Returns From Arizona Visit

Mrs. Katie Grijalva has returned home after spending a week in Willcox, Arizona, visiting the Bill Whalen family relatives that have not seen her since she was a small child and she, herself did not know, met the Whalen clan for the first time in her life. She promised to return to Willcox come spring, in time for the round up.

Bill Whalen is Katie's cousin. She arrived in Willcox in time for the second day Rex Allen Day celebration, which is highlighted with parade and all the trimmings.

Her cousin, who is now 96 years old, was awarded a trophy as second best horseman. He has been a participant all his life; always walking away with a trophy.

Republican VIP Guests To Attend Arcadia Republican Women's Dinner

A Republican VIP dinner is scheduled for October 26 by the Arcadia Republican Women's Club. The annual Men's Night will be held at the Elks' Club, 27 W. Huntington Drive, Arcadia. The 7:30 dinner will be preceded by the social hour at 6:30 p.m.

Honorable Glenard P. Lipscomb, congressman representing the 24th District, guest of honor, will be presented by Mrs. Luther Watkins, program chairman, as speaker of the evening.

Lipscomb, whose long political career began with six years in the California State Assembly, was elected to Congress in 1935 and is now serving his eighth term.

In his report to the people, Representative Lipscomb will draw upon his vast experiences in Washington, including membership on the House Appropriation Committee since 1958. He is also ranking minority member on the Department of Defense Subcommittee and serves on the subcommittee handling appropriations for the Department of State, Judiciary, FFI, Commerce and related agencies.

In addition, he is a member of the Committee on House Administration and the joint Senate-House Committee on Printing and the joint Library Committee. Other duties include the Board of Visitors to the U.S. Military Academy.

As a result of his work on the problem of trade with the Communist bloc he was ranking minority member of a special House committee in the 87th Congress to study the export control program. He has co-sponsored legislation to improve government budgeting and accounting, education, health, water and taxation.

His name is also included on the rosters of the Elks and Masonic Lodges, Kiwanis, and Public Accounting Societies.

Also on the honored guest list are the Honorable H. L. "Bill" Richardson, Senator from the 19th State Senatorial District and the Honorable John L. E. Collier, 54th District Assemblyman.

The Chanteurs, talented vocal group from the Arcadia High School will provide a musical interlude.

President Mrs. Ryal R. Poppa states that the menu was planned with the men in mind and suggests that early reservations be made with Mrs. O. C. Porter, 1212 N. Santa Anita Ave., Arcadia.

Upon receipt of reservation accompanied by a check ($4 for adults and $3 for students) made payable to the Arcadia Republican Women's Club, tickets will be mailed by Mrs. Porter.

'Adventure' Theme For Rose Parade

New Year's Day, 1968, will be long remembered with the staging of the 79th Annual Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena.

Sixty beautiful floats designed, constructed, and decorated to the over-all professional theme, "Wonderful World of Adventure," will be seen by a million persons along the parade route and by 100 million televisioners in the USA, Canada, and Mexico.

Entries from outside the United States include those from the Republic of Mexico, Thailand, and Canada, the last named being represented by a float from Calgary, Ontario. The state of Montana will participate in the Rose Parade for the fourth time next January 1st with the state of Georgia fielding a floral entry for the first time.

From across the country, floral masterpieces will be entered by the following cities: Portland, Oregon; St. Louis, Missouri; St. Paul, Minnesota; and San Antonio, Texas.

Senator Everett McKinley Dirksen, Grand Marshal of the 1968 Rose Parade, will give the signal for the world-famous floral procession to get under way at 8:40 a.m. next New Year's Day. He and Mrs. Dirksen will then ride at the front of the procession in a rose-covered automobile. H. W. Bragg, Tournament President, will climax nearly three decades of service as an Association member by riding in the president's automobile with his wife, Dorothy, and members of their family.

Twenty-two of the country's finest bands will march in Pasadena's renowned year-beginning festivity. Setting the cadence will be the Official Tournament of Roses Band composed of 110 musicians of the Pasadena City College Musical organization led by Director Richard Coy.

Adding to the pageantry will be the world's greatest assemblage of horses and riders. About 250 equestrian units will take part in the proceedings in Pasadena. One of the four mounted patrols will be the flag-bearing Long Beach Mounted Police of 30 horses and riders. The valuation of mounts, equipment, and costumes will be in excess of 3½ million dollars.

You and Your Neighbor

by NANCY BRYAN

A very involved person indeed is Sierra Madre's own well known sculptress Mrs. Paula Randall. Naturally, sculpting keeps Mrs. Randall quite occupied and her busy life revolves around this talent.

This week an art class from Alverno toured her studio and last week a prospective buyer from Salt Lake City was visiting. Presently, some of her work may be seen at the Art Cellar Gallery at 80 N. Fair Oaks in Pasadena. A piece called "The Old One" — a bison — was used in the Conservation booth display at the L.A. County Fair.

Activities outside sculpting include being assistant editor of a magazine called "Challenge." This is an international quarterly "whose purpose is fostering unity and diversity among thinking people" says Mrs. Randall. "It seeks to forward the ideals of science, religion and art."

As president of the Pasadena Audubon Society will be one of many concerned people who will act as observers for the annual Condor Count. The Condor, a member of the vulture family, is a huge bird with a wing span of approximately 9 feet. Because these birds shy off from habitable areas, they are and have been in danger of extinction. According to Mrs. Randall, they only lay one egg every two years; added to this, is the fact that they are fed by the parent birds for over nine months and therefore dependent for survival.

The Annual Condor Count will be held this year on October 17 and 18. The various stations to be manned by observers number 63 and are located, generally speaking, in an area that extends from Santa Barbara inland to Gorman and in the south from Mt. Pinos — near Frazier Park — extending north to Fresno. As this is the only section of the state these birds are found, Mrs. Randall's assigned observation post will be within this area atop 8,766 foot high Mt. Able, which is located in the Ventura National Forest. Condor observers from other organizations involved in Condor counting — Fish and Game, Wildlife and Audubon Society — will be taking miscellaneous camping equipment for their two day camp-out. Last year, Mrs. Randall informs us, a total of only 52 of the magnificent creatures were counted. It truly appears that the gracious Mrs. Randall lives a richly rewarding life, full of many and varied interests.

Second Meet

Phi Delta Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will hold its second October meeting on October 17, at the home of Mrs. Judy Brandley, Pasadena. The cultural program "Your Charm — Marnelle" will be given by Miss Judy Butler, Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Judy Stevenson, Arcadia.

Women's Clubs Workshops To Be Held In W. Covina

Football is in the air and even the women will be playing! Granted it will not be the rough and tumble scramble young men enjoy, but who knows what it may stir up among energetic, active women as they tackle the problems of club work at a Kick Off Clinic in the form of a fall workshop under the direction of Mrs. Rudy Anderson, San Gabriel, vice president at large of Membership Group C, California Federation of Women's Club, to be held in West Covina on October 19.

All federated club members are invited to attend. Reservations must be made through the district reservation chairman by October 12. Calling the signals for the Community Improvement team will be Mrs. William Adams of Arcadia and Mrs. Don Whitlow of San Diego. Passing will star Mrs. Philip Allin of Altadena and Mrs. Kenneth Newton, Lakewood, the Junior Relationships team.

Mrs. Harry F. Talbot, Jr., San Diego, and Mrs. C. M. Cottrell, La Puente, will carry the ball for the Leadership Development team.

Lunch will be served during the noon recess. The pressure will build up during the afternoon session when Mrs. Edward D. Wylie of Glendale, first vice president of the federation, will discuss the "Successful Tackle" in reporting. "Extra Points" in public speaking will be made by Mrs. Maud Bond, instructor of speech arts and parliamentary law.

Mrs. Anderson will be called back into the game to give signals on "Holding," — membership, that is. And to end it all a "Field Goal" will be kicked by Mrs. Janet Lewis of Rosemead.

If the audience questions any of the rules proposed for this game, there will be plenty of time allowed for discussion, said Mrs. Anderson.

The 25.8 million veterans now in civil life range in age from teenagers to over 90. Their average age is 44 years, according to the Veterans Administration.

"Name just one thing that doesn't cost more today."

How about electricity. Maybe you don't realize it, but you're paying less per kilowatt-hour for electricity now than you did five years ago.

The average cost of a kilowatt-hour of electricity to Edison customers for residential use has gone down 17% in the last five years. That's because of the increased use you make of electricity. It's like a quantity discount.

And your price of electricity has gone down despite the fact that our costs for labor, materials and taxes have gone up.

Of course, you're using electricity for so many more things these days that your bill may seem to be a bit higher. But any way you look at it, electricity is a terrific bargain. Not only because it's inexpensive, but because it lets you do and enjoy so many things.

If you're an average consumer, you use our product in about forty different ways in your home. And that's not counting special uses like a home workshop or a ham radio or a slot car racing track.

Where else can you get such a good buy without even having to shop around for it?

Keep Elective!

County Assessor Philip E. Watson warned that changing the office of Assessor from an elective to an appointed one would tend to increase pressures on the assessor for special treatment and lessen the taxpayers' ability to challenge the assessor's decisions.

Addressing a Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce luncheon sponsored recently by the Chamber's State and Local Government Committee, Watson strongly urged that the office of Assessor remain elective.

"We are again being told that making the Assessor an appointive officer would remove him from politics and the necessity of soliciting campaign contributions and whatever pressures go with campaign contributions," Watson said.

"The argument, of course, assumes that campaign contributions are basically evil and that appointed officials are basically more honest than elected one. If these assumptions are correct, wouldn't the same reasoning apply to all elected officials, from legislators and congressmen to governors and Presidents?"

"In fact, some of the most corrupt property tax systems in the United States were products of appointment.

"For all its problems, the elective process — the opportunity to vote an assessor out of office — is a better safeguard for the taxpayers than an appointive process which makes him virtually untouchable."

The Assessor, whose topic was "The Legal, Moral and Ethical Issues Confronting Assessors," also discussed the responsibility of public officials concerning laws with which they disagree.

"We are living through a critical time in our society when significant segments of our population are refusing to obey certain laws which they contend are immoral, if not unethical," Watson said. "Public officials, in my judgment do not have this privilege, even if they are willing to accept the consequences. We may work to change a law which we believe is wrong, but so long as it is the law, we have a moral obligation to obey it.

"This is not to say that if the legislature passes a law which appears to be unconstitutional, a public official cannot challenge that law. But any such challenge must be in the public forum provided, before the courts or administrative hearing boards. But this is then a legal question, sharply different from substituting one's own private code for the public statutes."

Watson urged that the office of Assessor remain a non-partisan one, that full disclosure of campaign contributions be required of all public officials and that the communications media cut its campaign advertising rates to the level of their general advertising rates in the interests of cutting campaign expenditures so that political candidates would not have to raise sums of money via campaign contributions.

Spending Brakes Needed

The proposed surcharge on corporate and personal income is supposed to be a temporary measure needed largely to finance the cost of the war in Viet Nam. But, there have been temporary taxes enacted before, and a good share of them are still with us. If the rapid expansion in the size and cost of government now under way is not checked, any tax boost made will have little effect on budget deficits or the course of inflation. Both will remain with us to undermine the economic stability of the country and depreciate the income and the savings of the people. It is time to reconsider national fiscal policy. In the final analysis, it must be recognized that governments too have limitations on their ability to spend.

Why Not Taxation Equality?

As people brace themselves for a tax increase, quite logically there is renewed discussion of how to plug tax loopholes. The idea seems to be to placate voters, who must soon pay higher taxes, by conducting a campaign to tighten up the laws to prevent anyone escaping his share of the tax burden — which is all well and good. But, there is one glaring omission so far in all plans to plug tax loopholes. Nothing has been said about taxing government business enterprises that compete with tax-paying private citizens.

Most notable of these, of course, are the gigantic federal power projects. They not only escape taxes but preempt a commercial service that would otherwise fall within the province of the taxpaying, investor-owned electric industry. Thus, the taxpayers are hit twice when government goes into the electric power business, because it simultaneously escapes taxes and eliminates investor-owned power companies which pay heavy taxes.

This combination of tax favoritism and the destruction of lucrative sources of tax revenue has cost U.S. taxpayers billions of dollars. If our national legislators are serious about closing "tax loopholes," they should address their attention to the privileged public power projects.

Straight From the Shoulder

Self-criticism may be a virtue — up to a point. But, when self-criticism leads to confusion and loss of confidence, it is hard to find much virtue in it. And what is true of individuals must also be true of nations.

Self-criticism, the habit of running down and discounting the principles and institutions of our Republic may account for our seemingly aimless drift in domestic and international affairs. So far as the struggle against communism is concerned, both at home and abroad, Harleee Branch, a leading business executive and an outspoken believer in the American system, declares, "We shall never persuade 'uncommitted' people to adopt American institutions for which we ourselves, display little enthusiasm or devotion; nor shall we influence others to reject socialism if we appear willing to foster and finance socialistic institutions not only abroad, but in our own land. Let's face it: We shall win this struggle only if we succeed in preserving our basic social, political, and economic precepts; and we shall lose it, regardless of apparent diplomatic or military successes, if we end up with a governmental and economic system which is merely an imitation of the one we claim to resist."

Nature abhors a vacuum, and an excess of self-criticism is currently leading us into a self-defeating philosophical vacuum.

Letters To the Editor . . .

Warren M. Dorn, Supervisor Room 869, Hall of Administration, Los Angeles, Calif. 90012

Dear Mr. Dorn: I wish to commend you and support you one hundred per cent in the stand you have taken regarding the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Group.

It is very important that this highly specialized team of mountain-men does not become disbanded. The reason that they came into existence and their record of success speaks for itself. Some plan must be worked out to retain their volunteer services. With the continued mass influx of people into Southern California, most of them lacking in mountain information and knowledge, a greater need exists for them now than it did when they became a rescue group many years ago. No doubt many of the Sierra Madre men could become Deputy Sheriffs, but HOW many of the Deputy Sheriffs are MOUNTAINEERS? You don't just become a mountaineer — you earn the title and therein lies the basic difference. Independence and dedication go hand in hand with a mountaineer's qualifications and I salute the Sierra Madre Group for the position they are taking, which is an expression of their very existence.

Being a mountaineer myself with many years of experience, I know and appreciate the past and future value of retaining the Sierra Madre Group and trust you will do all possible to see that a satisfactory agreement is worked out for their retention.

Sincerely yours,
—WANDALEE THOMPSON

Los Angeles Times, Letters to the Editors: Re: Saturday, Oct. 7, San Gabriel Section.

The Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team is to be congratulated and admired for the "guts" they displayed in rejecting the dictatorial labor tactics of the Los Angeles Sheriff's office. The "weak sisters" who yielded to Peter Pitchess' pressure group are to be scorned. To bad authority is permitted to display power when jealousy creeps in.

The luncheon program will be presented by the Current Events Committee, Mrs. Theodore R. Miller, chairman. The guest speaker, Mr. Patrick Hillings, attorney and ex-congressman, will relate "Behind the Scenes in Washington." His great experience should be of much informative value, since the election year is approaching.

At 1:30 p.m., the Travel Department, Mrs. Howard Powley, chairman, will present the afternoon program in the Auditorium. One of the club's own past presidents, Miss Helen Louise Taylor, will show and narrate her most recent films titled "Latin American Holiday."
